Հարգելի՛ դիմորդ

Խորհուրդ ենք տալիս առաջադրանքները կատարել ըստ հերթականության: Ուշադիր կարդացե՛ք յուրաքանչյուր առաջադրանքի պահանջը և պատասխանների առաջարկվող տարբերակները: Եթե Ձեզ չի հաջողվում որևէ առաջադրանքի անմիջապես պատասխանել, ժամանակը խնայելու նպատակով կարող եք այն բաց թողնել և դրան անդրադառնալ ավելի ուշ:

Ձեր առջև դրված թեստ-գրքույկի էջերի դատարկ մասերը ազատորեն կարող եք օգտագործել սևագրության համար: Թեստ-գրքույկը չի ստուգվում: Ստուգվում է միայն պատասխանների ձևաթուղթը:

Առաջադրանքները կատարելուց հետո չմոռանաք պատասխանները ուշադիր և խնամքով նշել պատասխանների ձևաթղթում: Պատասխանների ձևաթղթի ճիշտ լրացումից է կախված Ձեր քննական միավորը:

Մաղթում ենք հաջողություն:

I. Կարդալ տեքստը և պատասխանել հարցերին՝ ընտրելով ճիշտ տարբերակը:
Read the text and answer the questions choosing the right answer.

Line number

1. The ‘unknown’ world has always been around us. We have begun to
2. investigate the universe, the ocean, the planet we live on. Yet, one of
3. the greatest mysteries – the man himself and his unbelievable abilities
4. – remains unsolved.
5. In Russia several cases have been reported recently of people who
6. can read and detect colours with their fingers, and even see through
7. solid doors and walls. One case concerns an eleven-year-old schoolgirl,
8. Vera Petrova, who has normal vision but who can also perceive things
9. with different parts of her skin, and through solid walls. This ability
10. was first noticed by her father. One day she came to his office and
11. happened to put her hands on the door of a locked safe. Her father and
12. an employee of his were busy discussing a certain business problem.
13. Suddenly she asked her father why he kept so many old newspapers
14. locked away there. Moreover, she described the way they were done up
15. in bundles.
16. Vera’s curious talent was brought to the notice of scientific research
17. institute in the town of Ulyanovsk, near where she lives. In April she
18. was given a series of tests by a special commission which consisted of
19. very distinguished scientists and doctors of different spheres. During
20. these tests she was able to read a newspaper through a vague screen.
21. What’s more, by moving her elbow over a child’s game of Lotto she
22. was able to describe the figures and colours printed on it, and in
23. another instance, wearing stockings and slippers, to make out with her
24. foot the outlines and colours of a picture hidden under a carpet. That
25. was really fantastic. So the commission was to accept that the girl did
26. have extraordinary abilities.
27. Other experiments, carried out by another scientific group, showed
28. that her knees and shoulders had a similar sensitivity. During all these
29. tests Vera was blindfold. Indeed, except when blindfold, she lacked
30. the ability to perceive things with her skin. It was also found out
31. that although she could perceive things with her fingers this ability
32. ceased the moment her hands were wet.

Although many people will insist that they aren't superstitious, omens and superstitions actually play a part in all our lives. Commonsense should, by rights, triumph over instinct. But that's not always the case! _____ .You will automatically flinch even though you know the glass will protect you. Instinct wins over common sense!

Why do people believe in superstitions? Superstitions come in three main forms each one having its own explanation. _____. Love letters should always be written in ink according to some superstitions. To write in pencil is an ill-omen for the courtship. It is not a good omen to propose by mail and if a girl receives two letters from different lovers at the same time, she will marry neither of them.

_____. And only the person conducting the service should pick it up, or the life of the couple may turn out unhappy. _____. Unable to resist this temptation, some girls will try on their dress but leave off a shoe or a glove, out of respect for this old tradition.

How did this type of superstition originate? It is likely that people observed certain unfortunate experiences after having performed an action. They will have avoided repeating these for fear of attracting further misfortune on their way. _____. Walk under a ladder for instance and there's the danger of some paint, tools or a bucket falling on your head!
